

NATIONAL TRUST OF QUEENSLAND

Ground Floor, National Trust House, 95 William Street, Brisbane QLD 4000

Tel: (07) 3223 6666

Fax: (07) 3229 0146

Email: <mailto:info@nationaltrustqld.org>

Website: <http://www.nationaltrustqld.org>

Please visit our website for current property hours of operation.

Here is a link to the Qld National Trust's "Properties" Webpage.

▪ SOUTHERN QUEENSLAND

Currumbin Wildlife Sanctuary

Gold Coast Highway, Currumbin 4223

Tel: (07) 5534 1266

Email: enquiries@cws.org.au

Web: <http://www.cws.org.au>

Home to hundreds of mammals, birds and reptiles, the Sanctuary has one of the largest collections of Australian native wildlife in the world. Established in the 1940s, the Sanctuary has attracted millions of visitors throughout its history and continues to provide opportunities to get closer to Australia's amazing wildlife.

Open: daily 8am–5pm, (closed Christmas Day, open from 1pm Anzac day). Discounted entry fees apply to all National Trust members. Free entry to National Trust Green Guardian members.

Wolston House

349 Grindle Road, Wacol 4076 (Brisbane)

Tel: (07) 3223 6666

A rare, surviving, early Queensland sandstone and brick farmhouse, Wolston House was built in 1852 for Dr Stephen Simpson, the first Moreton Bay Commissioner for Crown Lands. The house is constructed of sandstone and brick and situated on a rural site.

Open: 2nd & 4th Sunday of the month. Groups by appointment.

Moons Reserve

Moons Lane, Brookfield 4069

Tel: (07) 3223 6666

This reserve honours Brookfield pioneers Thomas & Susan Moon, parents of William R. Moon the first president of the National Trust of Queensland in 1964.

Open: daylight hours.

Brennan & Geraghty's Store Museum

64 Lennox Street, Maryborough 4650

Tel: (07) 4121 2250

Established in 1871, this large grocery store was operated by one family for over 100 years. Its intact interior houses a collection of more than 100,000 items, all original to the store. Unsold stock from the 1890s to 1920s, as well as historic trading records and advertising material are on display.

Open: daily 10am–3pm.

Royal Bull's Head Inn

Brisbane Street, Drayton 4350(Toowoomba)

Tel: (07) 4637 2278

The Inn (c.1859), is one of the earliest buildings in the Toowoomba area, and was a welcome oasis for travellers, as well as being used for meetings, auctions and social functions. The rooms are furnished of a style common during the 1870s, downstairs represents the visitor's accommodation and upstairs the working men's rooms. Two rooms survive in original condition.

Open: Fri to Sun 10am-4pm (or by appointment).

▪ NORTHERN QUEENSLANDJames Cook Museum

cnr of Helen and Furneaux Streets, Cooktown 4895

Tel: (07) 4069 5386

One of Cooktown's significant buildings, today's museum was the convent of St Mary when erected in the late 1880s. With its special connection to the navigator Lieutenant James Cook, the museum's collection includes an Endeavour cannon, one of six jettisoned when Cook's barque struck the Barrier Reef in 1770. Other items in the collection include the original Endeavour anchor, Chinese and indigenous artefacts, early Cooktown and convent history.

Open: daily 9.30am–4pm.

National Trust Heritage Centre

5 Castling Street, Townsville 4810

Tel: (07) 4771 5873

This historic house complex displays three typical North Queensland Houses, each furnished in appropriate style, with an emphasis on items made in North Queensland. The complex includes a simple miner's cottage from the early 1880s, a comfortable villa residence from late in the same decade and a 1920s farmhouse.

Open: Wed 10am–2pm, weekends 1–4pm. Groups by appointment.

Hou Wang Temple & Museum

Tel: (07) 4091 6945

Herberton Road, Atherton 4883

The only surviving building from a Chinese settlement founded in Atherton in the 1880s, Hou Wang Temple was constructed of timber and corrugated iron and opened in 1903. For decades it was the social and religious heart of Atherton's Chinese community. The existing fittings for the temple, including the elaborate carvings, bell, ding and metal vessels were made in China.

Open: Wed to Sun, 11am-4pm.

Stock Exchange

76 Mosman Street, Charters Towers 4820

Tel: (07) 3223 6666

This grand masonry building was originally built in 1888 as a shopping arcade, and by 1890 became home to the Stock Exchange. The building has a glassed roof interior with tessellated tile floor.

Contact NTQ or visit the website for opening hours.

Charters Towers Museum

Mosman Street, Charters Towers 4820

Tel: (07) 3223 6666

The Museum is housed in a late nineteenth century commercial building (c.1883) and contains items pertaining to the history of Charters Towers.

Contact NTQ or visit the website for opening hours.

Tent House

Fourth Avenue Motor Inn, Fourth Avenue, Mount Isa 4825

Tel: (07) 3223 6666

The Tent House is a timber-framed house with a canvas roof under a free-standing galvanised iron roof. This environmental adaptation was once common in Mount Isa for miners' accommodation.

Open: by appointment.