

5th Reid Open Houses and Gardens

Sunday 10 October 2010

1.0 to 4.00 pm

The National Trust, with support from the Reid Residents' Association, is conducting its fifth annual guided visit to homes in Reid originally constructed in the 1920s and 1930s on Sunday 10 October 2010. The three homes and their gardens have not been opened previously under this program. Here is your chance to view restorations and extensions to three privately owned dwellings in the heritage precinct of Reid. You can also wander in the gardens and to speak to the owners. An introductory talk will be provided on the Reid Housing Precinct which is listed on the ACT Heritage Register. Afternoon tea will be provided by the Reid Preschool Parents' Association in the Reid Preschool (opened 1945) at the conclusion of the inspections.

This event coincides with the opening of two other gardens in Reid under the Australian Open Garden Scheme. There will be time for you to also visit these gardens if you would like to do so, but an additional charge will apply – payable to the garden owners.

Cost: $20 for National Trust and RRA members or $25 for non-members (includes a delicious after-noon tea and a copy of The Heritage of Reid by Shibu Dutta – published by the Reid Residents' Association). Book through the National Trust office, 1st Floor, North Building (above the Canberra Museum & Gallery) entry from Civic Square, Canberra City. Telephone 6230 0533. The office is open 9.30 am to 4.30 pm, Monday to Friday. Most credit cards are accepted. Alternatively book on-line at <http://www.nationaltrustact.org.au> and go to the tab Events and Meetings and then go to the heading 'Booking' where you can book on-line using your credit card.

There is a limit of 30 persons, so don't delay with your booking!
